The Wonder Within You* gives a never-before-seen glimpse into every week of pregnancy

Carol Stream, Ill.--Carey Wickersham presents The Wonder Within You, a stunning week-by-week guide to pregnancy complete with high-definition images, links to videos of high-res 3-D sonograms, and a pregnancy calendar.

The Wonder Within You features HD photographs of a prenatal baby's weekly growth. Each chapter is loaded with professional medical advice and heartwarming anecdotes from moms about their babies' pre-birth antics. Unlike other pregnancy books, The Wonder Within You comes with QR codes for each week of pregnancy. When mom scans the code with her smart phone or enters the URL, she can see a high-def 3-D video of a baby at the same stage of development as her own. Striking still-shots and videos of babies in utero are featured throughout the book, showing how the distinct personality of a child is noticeable even before birth.

A special keepsake, The Wonder Within You serves as a prenatal baby book, with space for journaling and a pregnancy calendar to record the memories of a life-changing season. Mom can reflect each week on baby's development through timely pictures, advice, and stickers to mark milestones on her pregnancy calendar. Writing down her prayers and hopes in The Wonder Within You allows Mommy-to-Be to take a moment to marvel at the incredible gift of life.

About the Author: Carey Wickersham

Carey Wickersham is a journalist at the FOX news affiliate in Kansas City. She loves a good story. In 14 years as a television anchor and reporter, she has told thousands to viewers and friends alike.

When Carey was pregnant with her son, she paid 100 dollars for a 3-D ultrasound. Personality and preferences leaped off the screen as she watched her 28-week-old baby twist and turn and wave and blink. It was an awe-filled moment that changed her life. Now she combines her passion for storytelling with her life-long adoration of babies.

Carey has also worked at TV stations in South Dakota, Idaho, and Arizona. Her father, Dave Wickersham, is a former major league baseball pitcher.

Carey is a certified water fitness instructor. She loves to bike and read and spend time with her husband and two children.
